

Convoy 519 : an aerial supply line was established from Takoradi on the Gold Coast of West Africa eastwards to Khartoum, and hundreds of aircraft were ferried across the featureless scrub of central Africa to join the hard-pressed squadrons in the desert sands of North Africa

Titre(s) : Convoy 519 : an aerial supply line was established from Takoradi on the Gold Coast of West Africa eastwards to Khartoum, and hundreds of aircraft were ferried across the featureless scrub of central Africa to join the hard-pressed squadrons in the desert sands of North Africa

Ensemble : AVIATION NEWS n° 9 Vol. 67 03065634 01/09/2005

Auteur(s) : BARNARD Ronald

Adresse bibliographique : 2005

Description matérielle : 686-690 p. : cartes; noir et blanc

Sujet(s) : GRANDE-BRETAGNE
SECONDE GUERRE MONDIALE
FRONT MÉDITERRANÉEN ET NORD-AFRICAIN
FORCE AÉRIENNE
ROYAL AIR FORCE