Résumé ou extrait : "In this book, based on field work undertaken in Afghanistan itself and through engagement with postcolonial theory, Bojan Savić critiques western intervention in Afghanistan by showing how its casting of Afghan natives as "dangerous" has created a power network which fractures the country – in echoes of 19th and 20th century colonial powers in the region. Savić also offers an analysis of how and by what means global security priorities have affected Afghan lives." (éditeur)
