

Harvest of death

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Titre(s) : Harvest of death : chemical warfare in Vietnam and Cambodia / [by] J. B. Neilands [and others]
With a foreword by Gunnar Myrdal

Autre(s) responsabilité(s) : Neilands, J. B.

Editeur, producteur : New York : Free Press [1971, c1972]

Description matérielle : xvi, 304 p. : illus. ; 24 cm

Note(s) : Appendices (p. [207]-285) 1. The Geneva protocol of June 17, 1925, and a list of the 98 signatory states.--2. Chemical properties of CN, DM, and CS.--3. Excerpts from Department of the Army training circular 3-16, April 9, 1969.--4. Excerpts from Dean Rusk press conference of March 24, 1965.--5. Editorial from Chemical and engineering news, August 16, 1965.--6. Richard M. Nixon policy statement of November 25, 1969, on chemical and biological warfare.--7. United Nations General Assembly Resolution of December 16, 1969.--8. Excerpt from the Gellner and Wu report of May 17, 1970, on the use of tear gas in war.--9. Message from Richard M. Nixon and William P. Rogers to the U.S. Senate, August 19, 1970, on the Geneva protocol.--10. Herbicides in Vietnam: AAAS study finds widespread devastation.--11. Resolution on chemical defoliants adopted by the Council of the AAAS at its 1970 annual meeting in Chicago

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Includes bibliographies.

Sujet - Nom commun : Guerre biologique
Toxicologie