Résumé ou extrait : DVD. Durée : 6 minutes. Sous-titres français. On April 8 1917, a rugby was played at the Parc des Princes stadium in Paris between the French and New Zealand military teams. It gave the SCA the opportunity to photograph and film the All Blacks for the first time. The team was drawn from New Zealand troops who, with about 103 000 of their fellow countrymen in foreign service, were part of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps (ANZAC) from 1914.
