Résumé ou extrait : La 4e de couv. indique : "This book studies the justice concerns of political actors in important international regimes and international and domestic conflicts and traces their effects on peace and conflict. The book demonstrates that such justice concerns play an ambivalent role for the resolution of conflicts and maintenance of order. While arrangements that actors perceive as just will provide a good basis for peaceful relations, the pursuit of justice can create conflicts or make existing ones more difficult to resolve. Contents Justice and Peace Research.- Justice in International Regimes and Organizations.- Justice and Outside Interference in Societies.- Justice in Negotiating Peace and Conflict Target Groups · Lecturers and Students in the fields of Political Theory, International Political Theory, International Relations, International Law, and Sociology · Practitioners e.g. members of the Bundestag or in the Federal Foreign Office · Experts and executives in development cooperations The Editors Dr. Caroline Fehl, Dr. Dirk Peters, Dr. Simone Wisotzki and Dr. Jonas Wolff are researchers at the Peace Research Institute Frankfurt.
