

The Airey Neave papers@Broadening the government's counter-terrorist response (CONTEST)

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Titre(s) : The Airey Neave papers : Terrorism in the UK Broadening the government's counter-terrorist response (CONTEST)

Autre type de relation : Terrorism in the UK.
Broadening the government's counter-terrorist response - CONTEST.

Auteur(s) : Strategic and Combat Studies Institute (Great Britain)

Autre(s) responsabilité(s) : Bowen, Wyn Q.
Stewart, Andrew Dr

Editeur, producteur : London : Strategic and Combat Studies Institute, 2005

Description matérielle : 94 p. ; 19 cm

Collection : Occasional no. 50

ISBN : 1-87434-640-2
978-1-87434-640-1

Classification décimale Dewey : 327.117

Note(s) : Annual military seminar, 29-30 November 2004

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Includes bibliographical references.

Note sur le contenu : Introduction The Airey Neave Working Group The global terrorist environment International responses to the global terrorist threat: where are we post 9/11? UK counter-terrorism strategy and the background to CONTEST The contribution of the blue light services to CONTEST MoD initiatives in counter-terrorism Intelligence and counter terrorism: JTAC Principles of societal counter-terrorism for resilience The UK private sector and the threat from terrorism Contesting the strategy: the credibility gap Key issues and priorities The Airey Neave Trust