Résumé ou extrait : This book offers a very interesting deep-dive into EU and South Korean approaches to cybersecurity issues. In a unique approach, the editors and authors focus on the potential for strategic partnership and shared lessons learned given common commitments to democracy, human rights, the free market, and a rules-based international order of the two regions. Essential reading for students and researchers in political science, international relations, international law, strategic and defence studies, computer science, and cognitive science. Gertjan Boulet is an Advisor on Cyber and AI at the Cabinet of Belgium's Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Telecommunication. He is also a lecturer and researcher in International Cyber Law and International Relations. Michael Reiterer is Distinguished Professor at the Centre for Security, Diplomacy & Strategy (CSDS) at the Brussels School of Governance, Belgium. He also served as Ambassador of the European Union to the Republic of Korea, Switzerland and Liechtenstein. Ramon Pacheco Pardo is Professor of International Relations at King's College London, UK, and the KF-VUB Korea Chair at the Brussels School of Governance, Belgium
