

Slaughter in the sky : hard-pressed aircrews of the 11th Aero Squadron who flew Liberty D.H.4s in America's first bombing campaign during World War One learned most of their skills from combat experience, if they survived

Titre(s) : Slaughter in the sky : hard-pressed aircrews of the 11th Aero Squadron who flew Liberty D.H.4s in America's first bombing campaign during World War One learned most of their skills from combat experience, if they survived

Ensemble : AVIATION HISTORY n° 2 Vol. 15 10768858 01/11/2004

Auteur(s) : GUTTMAN Robert

Adresse bibliographique : 2004

Description matérielle : p. 30-36 et 60 p. : noir et blanc

Sujet(s) : GRANDE-BRETAGNE
PREMIERE GUERRE MONDIALE
AVION DE BOMBARDEMENT
D.H. 4 (De Havilland)
CLIENT EXPORT
ÉTATS-UNIS D'AMÉRIQUE
FORCE AÉRIENNE
US AIR FORCE
ESCADRON