

Criminology

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Titre(s) : Criminology / Tim Newburn

Auteur(s) : Newburn, Tim

Editeur, producteur : Cullompton : Portland (Or.) : Willan publ., 2007

Description matérielle : 1 vol. (XXVII-1019 p.) : ill., carte ; 27 cm

ISBN : 978-1-84392-285-8

1-84392-285-1

1-84392-284-3

978-1-84392-284-1

EAN : 9781843922841 br.

Classification décimale Dewey : 364

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Bibliogr. p. [954]-1002. Glossaire. Index

Note sur le contenu : Understanding crime and criminology Crime and punishment in history Crime data and crime trends Crime and the media Classicism and positivism Biological positivism Psychological positivism Durkheim, anomie and strain The Chicago school, culture and subcultures Interactionism and labelling theory Control theories Radical and critical criminology Realist criminology Contemporary classicism Feminist criminology Late modernity, governmentality and risk Victims, victimization and victimology White-collar and corporate crime Organised crime Violent and property crime Drugs and alcohol Penology and punishment Understanding criminal justice Crime prevention and community safety The police and policing Criminal courts and the court process Sentencing and non-custodial penalties Prisons and imprisonment Youth crime and youth justice Restorative justice Race, crime and justice Gender, crime and justice Criminal and forensic psychology Globalisation, terrorism and human rights Understanding criminological research Doing criminological research

Résumé ou extrait : "This is a comprehensive introduction to criminology for students who are either new or relatively new to the subject. This text provides the basis of study for the new undergraduate student of criminology and those who need a foundation knowledge of criminology in other relevant courses. These include access and foundation degree courses run by colleges, university level courses in law, probation, policing, criminal and forensic investigation, and forensic psychology, as well as criminological components of A level courses in sociology and psychology"

Sujet - Nom commun : Criminologie