

Afghanistan in the balance

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Titre(s) : Afghanistan in the balance : counterinsurgency, comprehensive approach, and political order / edited by Hans-Georg Ehrhart, Sven Bernhard Gareis, and Charles Pentland

Autre(s) responsabilité(s) : Ehrhart, Hans-Georg (1955-....) (Éditeur scientifique)
Gareis, Sven Bernhard (1962-....) (Éditeur scientifique)
Pentland, Charles C. (Éditeur scientifique)

Editeur, producteur : Montreal (Québec) : Kingston (Ont.) : London [etc.] : [Centre for international and defence policy], McGill-Queen's university press, 2012, cop. 2012

Description matérielle : 1 vol. (IV-210 p.) : cartes, graph., ccouv. ill. en coul. ; 23 cm

Collection : Queen's policy studies

ISBN : 978-1-553-39353-5
1-553-39353-8

EAN : 9781553393535 br.

Appartient à la collection : Queen's policy studies series Montreal McGill-Queen's univeersity press

Titre de dos : [Afghanistan in the balance.]

Classification décimale Dewey : 958.104 7

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Notes bibliogr.

Résumé ou extrait : La 4e de couverture indique : "In the aftermath of 9/11, a NATO-led coalition entered Afghanistan. A decade later the country's prospects are still very troubling. As the coalition gradually prepares to withdraw and the Afghan National Army and Police assume increasing responsibility, Afghanistan in the Balance brings together Canadian and European experts to answer important questions concerning the country's future: What has been the impact of ten years of international intervention? What lessons have been learned about the conduct and consequences of such missions? Three sets of critical issues are discussed in this book. First, whether the doctrine of counterinsurgency, introduced officially by the US in 2009, can be implemented to lasting effect against a persistent and adaptive foe. Second, whether what is now called the "comprehensive approach" can achieve the long-sought but still-elusive aim of seamless coordination among military and civilian actors at the local, national, and alliance levels. And finally, how the outcome of the intervention in Afghanistan is likely to affect, and be affected by, the evolving regional and global order"

Sujet - Collectivité : Organisation du traité de l'Atlantique nord -- Afghanistan

Sujet - Nom commun : Contre-guérilla -- Afghanistan

Sûreté de l'État -- Afghanistan

Maintien de la paix -- Afghanistan

Organisations non gouvernementales -- Afghanistan

Reconstruction de l'État -- Afghanistan

Relations extérieures -- Afghanistan -- 1990-2020

Sujet - Nom géographique : Afghanistan -- Foreign relations