

Fleeting glory : having survived World War II, an RAF pilot and his navigator flew a 213-operation veteran de Havilland Mosquito across the Atlantic to Canada for a victory tour, but their triumphant celebration was to turn to tragedy just two days after VE-Day

Titre(s) : Fleeting glory : having survived World War II, an RAF pilot and his navigator flew a 213-operation veteran de Havilland Mosquito across the Atlantic to Canada for a victory tour, but their triumphant celebration was to turn to tragedy just two days after VE-Day

Ensemble : AEROPLANE 385 01437240 01/05/2005

Auteur(s) : DE BOER Richard

Adresse bibliographique : 2005

Description matérielle : 34-38 p. : noir et blanc

Sujet(s) : GRANDE-BRETAGNE
SECONDE GUERRE MONDIALE
AVION D'ATTAQUE AU SOL
D.H. 98 MOSQUITO (De Havilland)
ACCIDENT
CANADA