

A history of militarism

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Type de support : Volume

Titre(s) : A history of militarism : romance and realities of a profession / by Alfred Vagts

Auteur(s) : Vagts, Alfred (1892-1986)

Publication : New York (N.Y.) : W.W. Norton

Date de copyright : C 1937

Description matérielle : 1 vol. (IX-510 pages-[10] p. de pl.) : ill. ; 24 cm

Classification décimale Dewey : 355.09

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Notes bibliogr. pages 489-510.

Note sur le contenu : Introduction: the idea and nature of militarism Part I: From the feudal warrior to the mass army. From the mounted warrior to the standing army Military thought of the enlightenment American revolution challenges the standing army Mass armies: the French Revolution and Napoleon Mass armies employed in the wars of liberation against Napoleon Part II: Development and militarization of mass armies. Consolidation of military forces Preparations for the embattlement of nations in the world war Militarism in the war of embattled nations Part III: Military and politics. Military officers as politicians Protection and promotion of military interests within the state Military as guarantors of national security Part IV: Post-war militarization of society. Totalitarian militarism

Sujet - Nom commun : Militarisme