

Terrorism afghanistan, and America's new way of war

Titre(s) : Terrorism afghanistan, and America's new way of war / Norman FRIEDMAN

Auteur(s) : FRIEDMAN, Norman

Editeur, producteur : 2003 NAVAL INSTITUTE PRESS

Description matérielle : 327 : Illustration

ISBN : 1-59114-290-3

Autres classifications : OUVR

Note(s) : Notes ISBD : Bibliogr. Index

Résumé ou extrait : Strategist and naval historian Friedman argues that the September 11 attacks on the US were carried out on the orders of Osama bin Laden in order to create a pan-Muslim empire with him at its head. He also describes how the effort was foiled by a new US military tactical style first tested in Afghanistan. Annotation (c) Book News, Inc., Portland. O

Sujet(s) : ETATS UNIS

GUERRE

TERRORISME

AFGHANISTAN

ISLAM