

Nautical and astronomical tables ; compiled and computed for facilitating operations in navigation and nautical astronomy

Type de contenu : Texte

Titre(s) : Nautical and astronomical tables ; compiled and computed for facilitating operations in navigation and nautical astronomy : comprising several new tables, particularly adapted for the mean atmospherical refractions in the East and West Indies, as well as in the temperate and frigid zones ; the transits of sixty-one stars over any meridian to the year 1836 inclusive. / THOMAS LYNN . To which are prefixed, a full explanation of their uses and application ; description of the most important instruments employed by the manner ; copious rules and examples for finding the latitude, with various short methods of ascertaining the longitude, by means of chronometers and lunar observations, &c.

Auteur(s) : LYNN, THOMAS

Adresse bibliographique : London : printed for the author, 1825

Note(s) : Anglais