

Anatomy of peacemaking

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Type de support : Volume

Titre(s) : Anatomy of peacemaking : Nagorno-Karabakh conflict & missed opportunities / Hrair Balian

Auteur(s) : Balian, Hrair (19..-....)

Publication : Cham : Palgrave Macmillan

Date de copyright : C 2026

Description matérielle : 1 volume (XXVII-599 pages) : cartes ; 22 cm

Collection : Rethinking peace and conflict studies 2752-857X

ISBN : 978-3-032-12489-0

EAN : 9783032124890 relié

Appartient à la collection : Rethinking peace and conflict studies 1759-3735

Classification décimale Dewey : 947.540 86

Note sur la responsabilité : Hrair Balian, peacebuilding practitioner since 1990, served at the UN, OSCE and NGOs (International Crisis Group, Carter Center). Worked on conflict resolution, elections and human rights in the Balkans, Eastern Europe, the Caucasus, Central Asia, Middle East and Africa. Also served as Adjunct Professor, Emory University, School of Law

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Bibliographie pages 561-587. Notes bibliographiques. Chronologie. Index

Note sur le contenu : Chapter 1: Prologue Chapter 2: Early Warnings Chapter 3: Perestroika & Soviet Collapse (1987 - 1991) Chapter 4: Formation Of Minsk Group Amidst Total War (1992-1994) Chapter 5: Minsk Group Proposals Chapter 6: U.S./Eu Mediation – Nagorno-karabakh's Demise (2021 - 2025) Chapter 7: Osce Mediation, Shortfalls, Real Politics & Rules Based International Order Chapter 8: Collapse Of 30-year Mediation & Fall Of Nagorno-karabakh

Résumé ou extrait : This book examines the failure of more than 30 years of the Nagorno-Karabakh mediation and negotiations within the context of the broader Armenia-Azerbaijan violent conflict

(1988-2023) and from the perspective of conflict resolution and peace negotiations. The book focuses on peace proposals advanced by the OSCE Minsk Group, and after 2022, parallel, often competing mediation by the United States, European Union, and Russia. The book examines the conflicting parties' (Nagorno-Karabakh Republic, Armenia, Azerbaijan) response to peace proposals, their motivations, third-party intervenors' role, missed opportunities, geopolitical considerations, principal reasons the process eventually failed, and lessons learned for peacemaking in general. Research for the book includes primary source material from the OSCE and UN archives, open-source materials from the belligerent parties, the U.S., European states and institutions, Russia, scholarly books and essays on the subject, and interviews with decision makers, diplomats, mediators, and commentators.

Sujet - Nom commun : Conflit du Haut-Karabakh (1988-1994) -- Paix
Relations extérieures -- Arménie -- Azerbaïdjan