Résumé ou extrait : Présentation de l'éditeur : "This monograph focuses on the role peacekeeping missions played in the Burundi peace process and in ensuring that agreements signed by parties to the conflict were adhered to and implemented. It is accompanied by an interactive CD-ROM, actual documents that were collected during the process and are copies of original documents or translations. None of them were edited and reflect the documents originating from the process. There may be some documents which do not appear in this collection because they were either not available or were not distributed for public use."
