

The pregnant Lanc : the untold story of Qantas in the 1940s and 1950s, featuring three-engined Constellations, five-engined 707s and an enterprising but ill-fated venture into aerodynamic and structural design on an Avro Lancastrian

Titre(s) : The pregnant Lanc : the untold story of Qantas in the 1940s and 1950s, featuring three-engined Constellations, five-engined 707s and an enterprising but ill-fated venture into aerodynamic and structural design on an Avro Lancastrian

Ensemble : AEROPLANE 372 01437240 01/04/2004

Auteur(s) : VAN DE WATER Brian

Adresse bibliographique : 2004

Description matérielle : 75-79 p. : cartes; couleur; noir et blanc

Sujet(s) : GRANDE-BRETAGNE
AVION DE TRANSPORT COMMERCIAL
Type 691 LANCASTRIAN (Avro)
CLIENT EXPORT
AUSTRALIE
COMPAGNIE AÉRIENNE
QANTAS AIRWAYS
MAINTENANCE AÉRONAUTIQUE
MOTEUR
TURBORÉACTEUR