

Legal accountability and Britain's wars 2000-2015

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Titre(s) : Legal accountability and Britain's wars 2000-2015 / Peter Rowe

Auteur(s) : Rowe, Peter John (1947-....)

Editeur, producteur : London : New York (N.Y.) : Routledge, cop. 2016

Description matérielle : 1 vol. (XXXV-274 p.) ; 24 cm

Collection : Routledge research in international law

ISBN : 978-1-138-84624-1
1-138-84624-4

EAN : 9781138846241 rel.

Appartient à la collection : Routledge research in international law London Routledge [200?]

Classification décimale Dewey : 342.410 412

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Bibliogr. p. [261]-269. Notes bibliogr. Index

Résumé ou extrait : Présentation de l'éditeur : "This book discusses the manner in which Britain's wars, which took place between 2000 and 2015, have interacted with the relevant principles of international law and English law for the purpose, primarily, of considering legal accountability. During a debate in the House of Lords in 2005 a former Chief of the Defence Staff commented that 'the Armed Forces are under legal siege.' The book will discuss the major legal issues which have arisen, ranging from the various votes in Parliament to go to war, the constitutional relationship between ministers and senior commanders, the right under international law to use force, the influence of human rights law, the role of the courts in England (including the coroners' courts), to the legal regime applying to the conduct of UK military operations. It will assess critically whether the armed forces will now have to accept that operations conducted outside the UK are subject to greater legal scrutiny than previously and whether, if this is the case, it is likely to hinder their future military activities. This book will be of great interest to scholars of international law, the law of armed conflict, military studies and international relations, as well as to those with a professional or other interest in the subject matter."

Sujet - Nom commun : Pouvoirs exceptionnels -- Grande-Bretagne
Obligation de rendre compte (administration publique) -- Grande-Bretagne
Guerre (droit international)

Droit militaire -- Grande-Bretagne
Relations extérieures -- Grande-Bretagne