

War

Type de contenu : Texte

Type de médiation : sans médiation

Type de support : Volume

Titre(s) : War / Gwynne Dyer

Auteur(s) : Dyer, Gwynne

Publication : Reading : Periscope, 2017

Description matérielle : 1 vol. (480 pages) : illustrations ; 24 cm

ISBN : 978-1-902932-41-5
1-902932-41-2

EAN : 9781902932415 br.

Classification décimale Dewey : 355.02

Note sur les bibliographies et les index : Index

Résumé ou extrait : Présentation de l'éditeur : "Gwynne Dyer's War, now in its first UK edition, is widely regarded as one of the most compelling analyses of the history and psychology of armed conflict. Veteran political journalist and military historian Dyer argues against the inevitability of warfare in clear, intelligent and eminently accessible prose, submitting neither to resignation nor false optimism. The multipolar world that has arisen since the fall of the Iron Curtain has forced a re-examination of the accepted fundamentals of history. Dyer traces the psychology of soldiers to the workings of whole armies, and then to broader historical movements and how they change over time - or don't. He argues that war, as an act of mass violence, has remained unchanged; the only real change has been technological."

Sujet - Nom commun : Guerre
Guerre -- Histoire