

The art of making masts, yards, gaffs, booms, blocks and oars as practised in the Royal Navy and according to the most approved methods in the Merchant-service including a description of an improved rule for mast-makers... accompanied with a separate volume of large engravings

Type de contenu : Texte

Titre(s) : The art of making masts, yards, gaffs, booms, blocks and oars as practised in the Royal Navy and according to the most approved methods in the Merchant-service including a description of an improved rule for mast-makers... accompanied with a separate volume of large engravings

Mention d'édition : Second edition

Adresse bibliographique : London : printed for Steel and Goddard, 1816

Description matérielle : VI-184 p. - 2 pl. dépl. : ill. gr.s.c. ; 22 cm

Note(s) : Anglais

Sujet(s) : construction navale mâturation
marine marchande
Angleterre (Royaume-Uni)
1800-1899