

The ship-master's assistant and owner's manual

Type de contenu : Texte

Titre(s) : The ship-master's assistant and owner's manual : containing complete informations, as well to merchant's, masters of ships, and persons employed in the merchant service, as to officers and others in the Royal navy, relative to the mercantile and maritime laws and customs. / David (173.?-180.? ; libraire-relieur et marchand de cartes) Steel . In the course of which, the following subjects are particularly elucidated 1. disbursements and other ship-accounts. 2. tables useful in maritime affairs. 3. exchanges. 4. real and imaginary monies of the world. 5. owners. 6. masters. 7. seamen and seamen's wages. 8. impressing. 9. articles of regulation for the Royal navy. 10. freight. 11. charge-parties. 12. demurrage. 13. insurance. 14. bottomry. 15. salvage. 16. averages. 17. privateers. 18. quarantine. 19. bills of exchange. 20. navigation-acts. 21. smuggling-acts. 22. manifest-act. 23. fisheries in the Greenland seas and Davis's streights. 24. Southern-Wales fishery. 25. British fisheries. 26. Newfoundland fisheries. 27. Slave-trade. 28. Act for consolidation of the duties. 29. duties in the United States of America

Auteur(s) : Steel, David (173.?-180.? ; libraire-relieur et marchand de cartes)

Adresse bibliographique : London : D. Steel, 1790

Note(s) : Anglais